

Yale & Partners LLP to merge with Parker Garber & Chesney LLP

Merger significantly extends the range of core service offerings in the Greater Toronto Area market.

Toronto, Ontario - Effective August 1st, 2018, Yale & Partners LLP, Chartered Professional Accountants, will officially merge with Parker Garber & Chesney LLP, Chartered Professional Accountants. The combined firm will be called Yale PGC LLP.

Yale's partners say this merger is a substantial step forward in helping the firm achieve its longer-term strategic objectives:

"Part of our long-term strategic plan includes growing our presence in the Greater Toronto Area. While we are well positioned as a mid-size independent firm in Toronto, a physical presence in southern York Region was considered key to our geographic coverage within the GTA. The clientele, practice area focus, and corporate culture of Parker Garber & Chesney is very similar to that of Yale & Partners, and we believe this merger is a great fit between the two professional firms."

The team at Parker Garber & Chesney consists of 15 dedicated professional staff and is located at 1 West Pearce Street, Suite 700 in Richmond Hill (Beaver Creek).

The office practices primarily in the areas of owner-managed business, condominium services, accounting and assurance services, tax advisory for Canadian and international businesses and families, estate planning, and not-for-profit organizations.

"We are very pleased to have all the professionals at Parker Garber & Chesney, merge with our firm, and establish our presence in York Region," say the partners. "We are looking forward to this partnership because they complement our service lines and client base very well."

The combined firm of Yale PGC, with 9 partners and over 40 professional staff and 2 office locations in midtown Toronto and Richmond Hill, looks forward to continuing its commitment to help our clients achieve their goals.
